The Competition Model BR-30 Powder Measure is truly a competition model with some very special features. One of those features (the drum and micrometer) limits the overall charging range from a low of 10 grains (dependent upon powder density) to a maximum of approximately 50 grains. This measure uses all of the competition proven features of the Match-Grade Model 3BR. To achieve the most uniform powder metering possible for Benchrest Competition, at a targeted charge weight of approximately 30 grains, (hence the name BR-30) an entirely new drum and metering unit was created. Optional powder stand shown.
